Bloomingdale's home/living catalogue, Volume II.
A special sequel to our April index continues with the best of Bloomingdale's for the home. Our complete Fall guide to what's cooking, what's entertaining, all you need for the special way you like to live.

When Autumn leaves start to fall... start to plan. Begin with a visit to the Cooks' Kitchen–our special place for the finest-quality kitchen equipment. The best basics chosen by the editorial staff of The Cooks' Catalogue, under the direction of James Beard, Milton Glaser and Burton Wolf. Then, turn your attention to exciting news on the home-front. It's professional Cookware–the heavyweights, the functionals, the oversized kitchen tools-of-the-trade that only the pros have enjoyed until now. Pros like the star of our cover, chef Frederic H. Sonnenschmidt, C.E.C. of the United States Culinary Olympics Team. We've gotten it all together so you can get your hands into the big time as soon as possible.

And, for making a home a castle... easy furniture, new outlooks on the bedroom and bath. With everything beautifully accessorized for just the right finishing touches. Practical, great-looking additions...in Bloomingdale's style, of course.

Right now, many of these items are on sale for a limited time, though all are a permanent part of our home/living collection at regular prices. So keep us on file. This catalogue's been compiled as you year-round reference book to Bloomingdale's very special homeworks...ready and waiting for you!
